

Sports Data Soccer API - Match Events (MA3) Feed

Get all events in a game - including the player, team, event, type, time (minute and second), and qualifiers for each action.

Overview

The Soccer Match Events feed is a time-coded feed that lists all individual events and player actions in a match. Each incidence in the feed includes a contestant (team), event, type, and timestamp for each action. Every event has a series of qualifiers describing it. You will find explanations of every possible event and qualifier that could be returned in the response in our complete lists of Events Types and Qualifier Types. See the Appendix to put this into context and get information about the following: Pitch coordinates and direction of play | Goalmouth coordinates | Pitch zones | Playing positions | Formations

How Often Should I Poll The Feed?

We have provided some guidelines to help ensure that you call the feed only as often as you need to. Make sure that you don't exceed the rate confirmed with us - this can vary depending on whether you make requests as a B2B or B2C outlet - if you need more information on this, contact your Stats Perform representative.

Match Events (MA3) Guide

USAGE

GET match events data for a match by fixture UUID.
Required: Fixture UUID as a path parameter (as the resource ID). See the query parameters table below for other possible ways to query

If your request URL is as follows (does not contain a fixture UUID), the feed returns an error:
`/soccerdata/matchevent/{outletAuthKey}`

How can I get fixture and other entity UUIDs?
Use the Tournament Calendar (OT2) or Fixtures and Results (MA1) feeds to get fixture metadata, including its unique ID (UUID), linked contestants, competition, tournament calendar and other entities.

Query Parameters And Example Request Parameters

You must query the `/matchevent` feed by a fixture (match) UUID. This feed also makes use of the Global query parameters, and you can combine them with the following query parameters (some of which can be used in conjunction with each other.

Legacy IDs: You can use the `fx` parameter to filter by legacy IDs - only one ID is supported (you cannot pass multiple IDs in a comma-separated list).

Making successful requests: In our guides, we use HTTPS syntax for our example `GET` requests (rather than `cURL`, for example). All URLs are case-sensitive - this means that URL strings must contain the correct case and operators. You MUST format your requests correctly and include certain information; otherwise, an error will be returned. You can find information about the API, including the base URL (`{protocol}://{requestDomain}/{feedResource}`), in the main guide and API Overview and Authorisation guide.

- Include the following information in the URL or header and make sure it is correct for your outlet: your unique and valid `{outletAuthKey}` this must be after the Outlet Authentication Key (and endpoint, if applicable). for `_rt={mode}` (operating mode) and `_fmt={dataFormat}` (response format). If required, it should also include an entity UUID (such as a fixture/match UUID).
- Begin the query parameter string with `?` (question mark) - this must be after the Outlet Authentication Key (and endpoint, if applicable). To build up a query string, make sure that each query parameter is separated by the `&` (ampersand) operator. Values must be separated by the correct operator, for example `&` (multiple values, 'AND'), or - if a parameter supports it - `,` (multiple values, 'OR') or `!` ('NOT').
- Use the required `_` (underscore) for any parameters listed with this prefix.
- Remove any placeholder value curly braces `{ }` from your calls (we include these as an example only).
- If using the JSON format (`_fmt=jsonp`) you MUST use it in combination with the callback parameter (`_clbk`) and a fixed value (or where you use a different value in a different instance, you must do this as little as possible). Be aware that common JavaScript frameworks, such as jQuery, can default to use randomly-generated function names - you must make sure that these are overridden and define a fixed function name instead.

Note: You can specify multiple event <code>typeId</code> values to the <code>type</code> parameter in a comma-separated list (up to a maximum of 20 values) - for example: <code>type={typeId},{typeId},{typeId}</code> <pre>GET https://api.performfeeds.com/soccerdata/matchevent/{outletAuthKey}/{fixtureUuid}?_rt={mode}&_fmt={dataFormat}&ctst={contestantUuid}&prsn={personUuid}&type={typeId}</pre> _lcl=en-op	Add this parameter-value to return assets with the Opta namings, in English, in the response (instead of Opta Core namings). When the call does not include the <code>_lcl=en-op</code> parameter-value, the feeds will continue to work as they do currently; one example is that the response will be in the default language of English unless the call contains the <code>_lcl</code> parameter and a locale code value to request the response in a different locale/language. Note: You can use this parameter in combination with other valid parameters and values in the request. However, you cannot use it in combination with a locale/language code and <code>_lcl</code> parameter.

Query parameter	Value and description
	GET https://api.performfeeds.com/soccerdata/matchevent/{outletAuthKey}?_rt={mode}&_fmt={dataFormat}&_lcl=en-op&{queryParameters} Do not supply both the <code>_lcl</code> (with a locale/language code value) and <code>_lcl=en-op</code> in the same call - this is not supported; otherwise, the feed will return an error and code 10203 (Ambiguous/Invalid request parameters) in the response due to a duplicated <code>_lcl</code> parameter.

Sample Calls

These sample calls let you see an example URL and the response - click on the links below (hyperlinks open in a new window).

Each response provides data points about the match and a number of events. Any event-related updates will contain the player, team, event, type, minute and second for each event. Events are delivered under the `events` element. Each `event` has an Event ID, Event Type ID and a series of Qualifiers describing it.

You can get an explanation of the data contained within the response in Feed Output and the Appendix.

Feed Output

Here, you can find an explanation of all possible response fields and data. This is XML but fields in the feed response are similar for JSON.

- The root element can be `matchEvents` or `matchInfo` - see the table below.
- In the scenario where the match has not yet been played (for example, it is a scheduled fixture to be played in the future), not all attributes listed here will be present and we may provide placeholder values for some attributes. For example, the scores, winner, contestant name, position, and ID may not be known (the contestant `id` attribute may also not be returned). However, the feed will be updated with this information once it is available.

Event Types

Events are delivered as an array (under `events` for XML or `events` for JSON). When an event occurs during a match, it is assigned a unique Event ID. For each unique Event ID, there is an associated Event Type ID (`typeId`) which classifies the general event type that has occurred. It is common for an event instance to be accompanied by a Qualifier array (under `qualifier`). Each Qualifier has an ID and a Qualifier ID (`qualifierId`) and value - these explain and add depth and further information about the event. However, it is not mandatory (some events will not have qualifiers).

Use this table to look-up an Event Type ID and its description. You should also cross-reference any related Qualifier ID values with the Qualifier Types list.

Event Definitions

We have a long-established, consistent list of 'Event Definitions' in football that are adhered to across all data collection centres. You can find the most up-to-date definitions in the Opta Glossary (opens the Opta website), where we maintain an up-to-date list of the main football events logged by Opta.

84	Deleted After Review	This New Event type and typeId in order that the Contentious Referee Decision can be linked to it for all VAR cases. The deleted goal will now be a 'Deleted after review' event; we will now be able to link the CRD to this event, like we do to other non-deleted events. It keeps all the previous qualifier information, just like a regular deleted event does. (Added March 2021)	►qualifierId details

Qualifier Types

Qualifiers are linked to Event Types and provide more detailed information about the specific event that occurred. Each event can have a series of qualifiers describing it.

The Event Type ID classifies the general event type (such as a Pass event: "typeId": 1).

The Qualifier array provides further details (such as pitch coordinates or the type of Pass event) - it contains the following:

- qualifierId - this represents the specific event. For example, the type of Pass event, such as a 'Through Ball' ("qualifierId": 4).
- value - contains any related information. For example, pitch coordinates for the pass start point and pass end point.

Use this table to look-up a Qualifier ID and its description. You should also cross-reference any related Event Type ID values with the Event types list, and check the Appendix to get more information about the following: Pitch coordinates and direction of play | Goalmouth coordinates | Pitch zones | Playing positions | Formations explained | Kit IDs

Appendix 4 - Playing Positions

▼ SHOW/HIDE

When Event `typeId` 34 is shown it is usually given with the following `qualifierId` values:

- 130 ('Team Formation') - indicates the formation of the team
- 131 ('Team Player Formation') - lists the playing position of each player

It is also gives details about the players involved - this may be given using one of the following `qualifierId` values:

- 44 ('Player position') - lists the playing positions associated with each player for the given match
- 59 ('Jersey Number') - lists the involved shirt numbers of the players

It is possible that `qualifierId` 30 ('Involved') is given with values for the player IDs of the involved players. If not, use the shirt numbers given under `qualifierId` 59 ('Jersey Number').

The order that the players are listed in for `qualifierId` 59 or 30 will be the same order as the positions listed on qualifier 131 .

Attribute	Explanation
"qualifierID": 130	Team Formation. Here, "value": "8" can be interpreted as the team playing in a 4-2-3-1 formation. This is depicted under formation number 8 in Appendix 5 - Formations explained .
"qualifierId": 59 "qualifierId": 30 "qualifierId": 130 "qualifierId": 131	Jersey Number/Involved/Team Formation/Team Player Formation. To interpret the lineup data, which is given in "qualifierId": 130 ('Team Formation') use the data in conjunction with data from qualifiers 59 ('Jersey Number') (or 30 - 'Involved') and 131 ('Team Player Formation').

Attribute	Explanation
	The order that the players are listed in <code>qualifierId 59</code> or <code>30</code> will be the same order as the positions listed on <code>qualifierId 131</code> .
" <code>qualifierId</code> ": 131	Team Player Formation. Where there is a position value of <code>0</code> , this indicates a substitute - we do not currently record the exact playing position. The position order that the players are listed under this qualifier correspond with the order of the player values listed in <code>qualifierId 59</code> or <code>30</code> .

▼ SHOW/HIDE

The Qualifier IDs attached to Event `typeId 34` (Team set up) will include `qualifierId 197` ; this will have a numeric value which represents a HEX (hexadecimal) code that describes the main colour of the Team Kit.

You can look up the Team Kit ID in our Kit IDs table - click on the following link to download it.

Soccer Kit IDs (.xlsx)

Example: Here, you can see `qualifierId="197"` has a value of `3894` - in our Kit IDs reference file, ID 3894 is associated with HEX value `#009999` (a type of green).

Appendix 7 - Coordinates Transformation

▼ SHOW/HIDE

Background

Stats Perform has used a standardized pitch for the collection of our soccer data since we began using the first version of our collection tool back in 2005 (under the Opta brand). We are aware that the pitch used in our collection interface is not fully consistent with the standardized pitch by IFAB regulations (105x68 meters). To avoid potential consistency issues with our historical data, we must keep our coordinates the same.

This document explains how to transform our 100x100 coordinates system into a 105x68 meter pitch.

Type Of Transformation

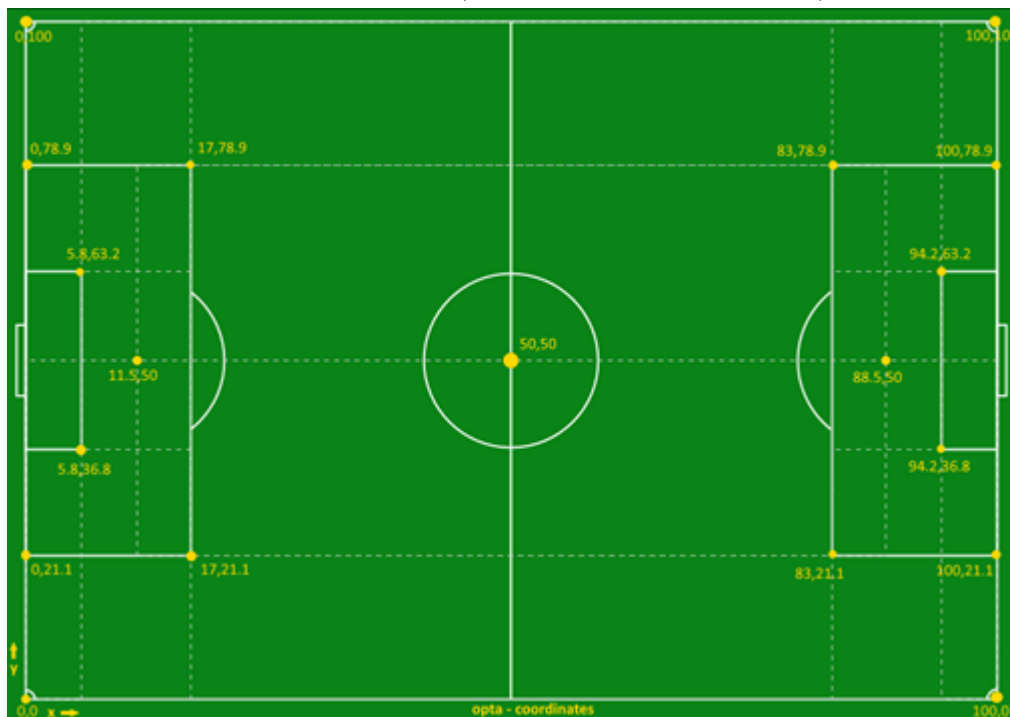

Low precision (like small widget, simple graphics)

Use the approx. conversion $x_{\text{Opta}} * 1.05\text{m}$, $y_{\text{Opta}} * 0.68\text{ m}$, $z_{\text{Opta}} * 0.064\text{ m}$. In this way the max value for z is 6.4m.

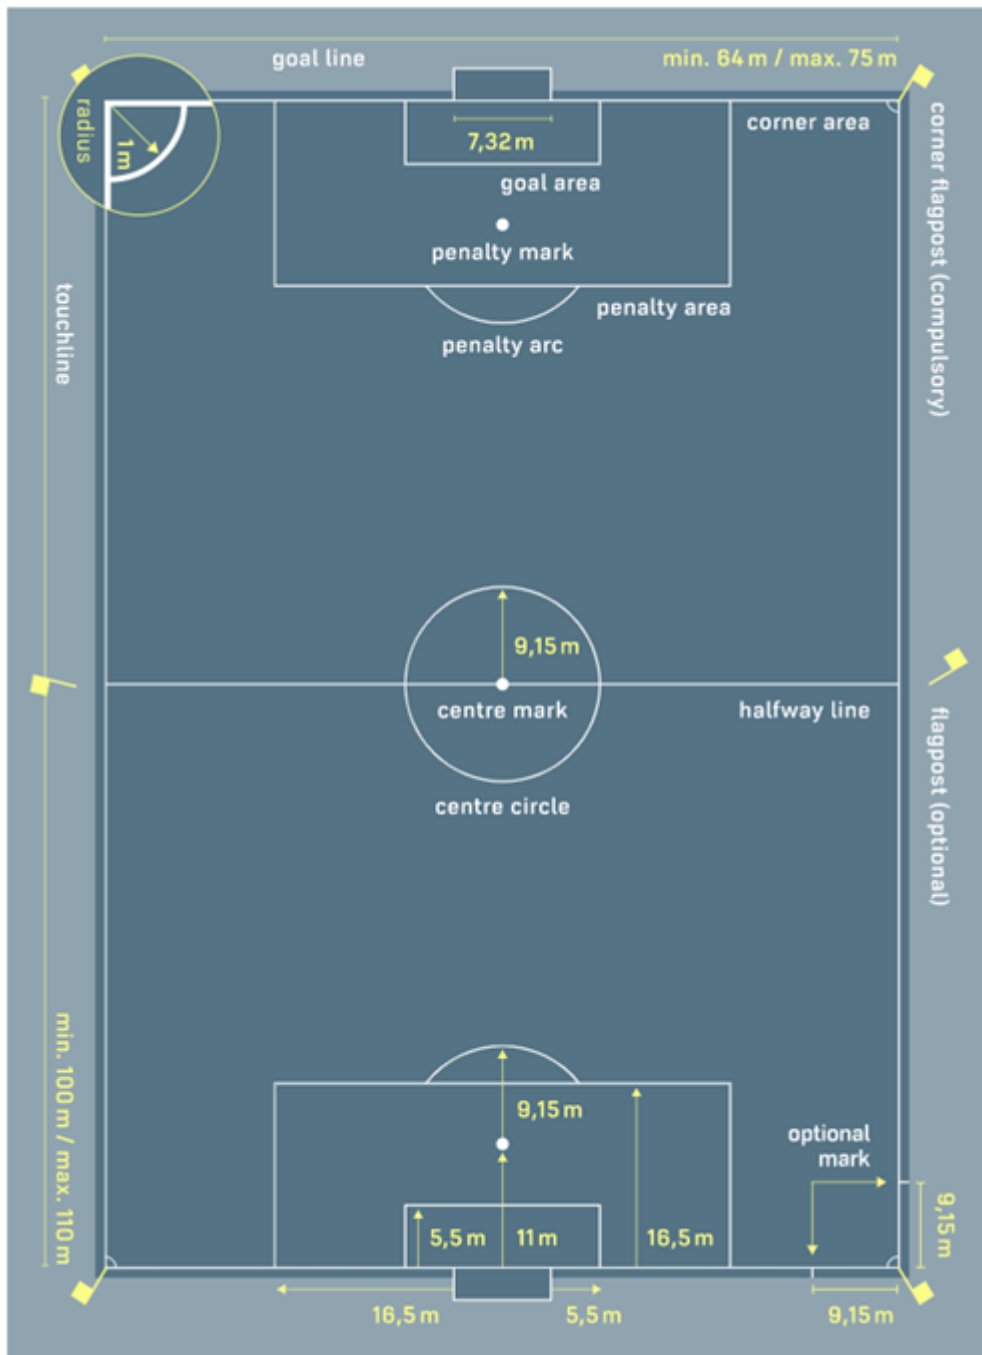

High precision (like to pair with tracking data)

Use the conversion described below with scaling factors for different zones.

Opta Coordinates (100x100 Pitch)

IFAB Official Pitch (105x68m As Standard)

Transformation Of X-Coordinates

How to calculate the x-coordinates: Opta (100) -> IFAB (105) pitch length

For $x_{\text{Opta}} \leq 50$:

Smallest x_{IFAB} value of the zone + $(x_{\text{Opta}} - \text{smallest } x_{\text{Opta}} \text{ value of the zone}) * \text{Scaling Factor of the zone} = x_{\text{IFAB}}$
